

America First meeting Sunday evening

Atty. J. K. Elliott will speak at
Arl. field house

The next meeting of the Arlington Heights chapter of the "America First Committee" will be held at the community field house next Sunday evening at 7:45 p. m. Special music is being arranged and the committee is desirous of having a good attendance. J. Kentner Elliott, prominent Chicago attorney, will be the speaker and he is certain to have a message of vital interest to all.

"There seems to be a timidity among people in Arlington Heights and other towns in regard to attending 'America First' meetings," states George Glow, chairman of Arlington Heights Chapter of America First. "The issue of war or peace for America, other than a war of defense of this hemisphere is not a controversial one. Our President, himself, has said we will not engage in a foreign war. So why should anyone be reluctant in showing that they are opposed to our entry into a foreign war? The majority of our people are opposed to another A.E.F. and should not hesitate to say so."

"We, of America First, are convinced that our entry into this war would only destroy 'democracy' in America. We have freedom and liberty have disappeared in all countries that are involved in war. We favor an 'impregnable defense for America' but we are opposed to 'arming the whole world' and 'saddling the cost' on American workers for the next two generations. We are not opposed to 'material aid to Britain, short of war' as our leaders promised when they took the first step into this war."

"Britain is a rich empire containing close to 500 million people, shrewd and of great courage. They have great man power and resources. If we furnish them with the weapons of defense and loan them the ships surely they can furnish the men to sail these ships into belligerent waters and thus avoid the 'incidents' that may draw us into a long, costly, chaotic war. "If such a policy had been followed as our leaders promised, America would not be in the 'mess' she is in today."

Local author's new book to be reprinted in England

Now that defense is the by-word in America, it is a good time to learn about the way that some of nature's small creatures have been practicing the most modern methods of protection for years and years.

In the book, "Nature Is Stranger Than Fiction," which was written by John Y. Beatty, many of nature's defenses are described and illustrated.

For instance, there is a beetle that builds submarine houses, completely equipped with silk ventilators. Any army would be more than glad to learn the secret of the ability of one of nature's pets which travels 1,000 miles on an empty stomach.

And if you think that flies are terribly pesky things to try to swat, there is a certain fly that can overtake a bullet. Their close kin, one of the mosquito family, has perfected the technique of a self-baiting, non-sinkable life boat.

Other oddities include a bird that can set its own broken wing, lizards that walk on water, and a beetle that flies through the air without wings.

"Since J. B. Lippincott company, the publishers of this book, have sold the British rights of "Nature Is Stranger Than Fiction" to an English publisher, this book will soon be available in the United Kingdom.

Therefore, this amusing and educational writing will be circulated among all kinds of English people—cockneys, Tommies, housewives, and RAF flyers—who are learning a thing or two about defense themselves.

PAUL DOUGLAS, Chicago Alderman, who will support the government's policies Thursday evening at Arlington Heights high school forum meeting.

Many receive Xmas savings checks this week

Mt. Prospect State bank reports total exceeds $17,000

Mt. Prospect State Bank mailed out checks Saturday, covering their 1941 Christmas Savings Club. They exceed $17,000, which is $3,500 greater than a year ago. The early mailing of the checks was done to accommodate members of the club who might desire to do their Christmas shopping early this year.

The popularity of the Christmas clubs of the Mt. Prospect State Bank increases each year and is reaching sizeable proportions. It has doubled in the last three years. "Christmas Savings Clubs," states Cashier Carl Hammer, "is purely a service to our patrons—a service which we are glad to render. Of course, the growth is gratifying to us. It is the same with the Checkmaster system that we recently inaugurated. More and more people are taking advantage of the opportunity the Checkmaster gives them to keep a checking account at a minimum of cost, and many of the Christmas Club members are using their checks to open a Checkmaster account, paying their Christmas purchases by check."

The 1942 Christmas club starts December 1st and anyone interested may start an account of that kind at any time.

Many have phoned recovery wishes to him, but he prizes most a cheery greeting from Joan Malzahn, the young daughter of his partner.

Palatine police find Arlington car in 30 minutes

A stolen car was located and recovered thirty minutes after it was reported to the Palatine police as having been stolen at Arlington Heights, Tuesday. The man who "borrowed" the car to take a ride was also apprehended and turned over to the Arlington Heights police.

At 4:15 p. m. Tuesday, the Arlington police asked Officer Folz to be on the look-out for a car taken from in front of an Arlington Heights tavern. Within half an hour officer Folz spotted the car in front of a home on the outskirts of town, had arrested the culprit in the house, and told the Arlington police to come and get the man and the car.

British War Relief secures Arlington theatre for pre-opening benefit

In about three weeks the beautiful new Arlington Theatre will open its doors. The British War Relief society has been very fortunate in being able to rent the house for a pre-opening showing of a picture which will be subsequently be shown at a Chicago loop theatre. Watch the Herald for the name of the picture and the date. Already over a dozen local merchants have donated door prizes. The story of this picture, based on a popular best-seller, has a ready made audience of thousands and is a saga of small town life in the early 1900's.

Due to the demand for seats and so on one will be disappointed, the British War Relief Society now has the tickets on sale. It is expected that the new Arlington Theatre will be completed around the middle of December and the date of the benefit will be announced in this newspaper one week before the big event.

Christmas seals pave way to check tuberculosis

How Christmas seals guide the way to the conquest of tuberculosis is symbolized in this year's design of the lighthouse shedding its bright, protective beam into the darkness. It was pointed out by the Arlington Heights Christmas Seal sale committee this week. Last Monday residents of Arlington Heights received their 1941 seals when the campaign officially opened throughout the nation.

"As lighthouses guard our coast lines, so is fighting tuberculosis good national defense, and this year the Christmas seal campaign requires the united support of every one in the community more than ever," said Mrs. John Allen, chairman of the seal sale committee. "Because the tuberculosis rate tends to increase in war-time periods, control and preventive measures must be strengthened. Christmas seals are the health tokens which help fight tuberculosis and eradicate it from this community."

For 35 years Christmas seals have paved the way which has reduced tuberculosis from the first ranking cause of death to the seventh. Throughout our country today half a million people still suffer from tuberculosis, some of whom are aware of their infection, but still others who are ignorant of the fact and who are innocently infecting others. Christmas seal funds are used to uncover these infections and reduce the death rate wherein last year 60,000 died needlessly from this disease.

Funds raised from the Christmas seal sale finance the many health activities of the Arlington Heights health center throughout the year. Nursing services, tuberculin skin tests, x-rays, diagnostic chest clinics, distribution of education literature are the weapons which will wipe out tuberculosis.

The collection and distribution of Christmas toys for needy children will be handled by the Parent-Teacher Association this year. This is supplementary to the filling of the baskets, which will be done by the basket committee.

A toy committee has been appointed for the P. T. A., with Mrs. Walter Schimmel its chairman, Mr. Vanderbeek, Mrs. Lattoff, and the school mothers Mrs. Oden and Mrs. Engel. This committee will be assisted by the room mothers and any other volunteer workers.

This week has been set aside in the Public Schools as Toy week, and all children have been asked to contribute new or used toys for the toy basket, for less fortunate children.

Publisher uses same crutches that helped him on wedding day

Chas. S. Paddock, publisher of Paddock Publications, is in the Palatine hospital, a victim of 2,000 pounds of newspaper. When he recovered sufficiently to need crutches, he could locate none of sufficient length until Mrs. Grace Lorenzen remembered that she had in her attic the same crutches that Mr. Paddock used, 33 years ago, his wedding day when he had broken an ankle two days before his wedding.

The publisher was attempting to move 1,000 pound rolls of newspaper, unaided, when he was thrown against the wall with his legs pinned behind two of the rolls that had fallen from above.

Vandals break school windows

Several windows in the South school, Arlington Heights, bore the brunt of vandals' stones last week in the largest mass destruction of public property for some time. Arlington Heights has been fortunate in making its youngsters respect public buildings, however, the police are not going to treat it lightly, said Chief Skoog. "Names of the vandals have been reported, but we are going to wait a day or two to give them an opportunity to appear and confess their crime. It will go a lot easier for them if they do."

Tuberculosis test for Arlington

Health center to conduct examinations

A tuberculosis prevention program sponsored by the Arlington Heights Health Center in cooperation with the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook County will be conducted in the Arlington Heights schools Monday, December 8.

Every child will be offered a tuberculin skin test without charge, but no one will be tested without the consent of his parents. It is hoped that every parent will return the request slips giving his consent to the test.

The tuberculin skin test is a simple and harmless method of finding out whether or not a person has been in contact with tuberculosis. If, within 48 hours after the tuberculin fluid has been injected into the forearm, a red and slightly swollen spot appears, the reaction is called "positive." However, a positive reaction does not mean that a person has tuberculosis; it simply means that there has been contact with tuberculosis germs, and measures should be taken to see if the lungs have been damaged.

To uncover any damage to the lungs a chest x-ray is advised. On Thursday, January 18, 1942, the Tuberculosis Institute will furnish their x-ray machine at the Health Center to x-ray all positive reactors.

Tuberculosis is preventable and in its early stages is more easily curable. Tuberculin skin tests discover the early infections and uncover those who are openly infecting people with whom they come in contact. Because healthy lungs can hide tuberculosis, every one should have a test to determine if he has ever been exposed to the disease.

The year-round program of health activities of the Tuberculosis Institute is made possible by the annual sale of Christmas Seals.

Walther League comedy to be staged Friday, Sunday

By special arrangement with the Dramatic Publishing Company of Chicago, the Senior Walther League will present a three-act comedy, "Early to Bed — Early to Rise," at the Lutheran school hall, Friday, November 28, and Sunday, November 30, at 8 p. m.

With a particularly timely plot to relieve one of the present day worries and cares, this play is scintillating with humor, yet tempered with good drama, vibrant in theme, yet sober in effect, a play that combines all the qualities of good showmanship, yet is entertaining to the nth degree.

To you who crave good entertainment, we say, "Come and see 'Early to Bed — Early to Rise'."

To you who delight in good humor we say, "You must see this play."

To you who appreciate good drama we say, "Don't miss this play."

To all of you who want a rousing good time we say, "Make it a point to see this play."

You won't be sorry, you'll enjoy yourself; but you will regret it if you fail to see "Early to Bed — Early to Rise."

The cast has devoted many long hours of hard, earnest practice, under the direction of Mr. Carl Weinrich, to make this the best in the history of the Walther League — a real hit.

Despite rising costs, admission will be only forty cents for adults and twenty cents for children. So, to assure your seeing this play, don't delay; get your ticket now from any member of the Senior Walther League.

'Twas a long session but little business at last board meeting

With the Herald going to press two days ahead of time last week and the newspaper deadline past, Arlington Heights village board did not transact any "headline" business at its bimonthly session, Nov. 17. However, adjournment was not taken until the usual late hour.

Contract for pulling the north-side well was let to the workman who is drilling the new well, R. M. Shacklee on his bid of $216. Other bidders were Henry Boyesen, Jr., $225, and V. R. Wayman, $300.

Alderman Albert J. Adam requested authority to purchase a one blade snow plow for $310. Action will be taken at next meeting. With unusual summer weather, the board did not think there was any reason to rush the purchase.

Permission was granted street department to purchase paint to remark parking lines.

The board did not look with favor on the request of the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. for permission to replace poles and lines on Campbell and other streets within the village. The clerk was ordered to return the presented plans with the suggestion that the telephone co. obtain necessary easements to place the poles in alleys or on rear lot lines.

Delinquent water bills totaled $781.95. The water department was asked to continue the good collection work.

Alderman Griffith reported that Henry Schad was ready to make the necessary repairs to the roof of the municipal building, but could not get the materials. Alderman Franke offered to aid him if he was advised the firm from which the material was ordered.

Police department receipts as follows: 29 motor vehicle arrests $94; business licenses $30; vehicle tags $8.00; dog licenses $4. There were no arrests and few complaints over hunting in the corporate limits.

A full evening of entertainment at high school

The two plays and their casts are as follows: "My Cousin from Sweden," with Marjorie Moodie, Evelyn Naska, Jacquelyn Jahrling, Cynthia Beckman, Vivian Moehling, Rosemary Glueckert, and Betty Larson; "He Ain't Done Right by Nell," with Shirley Carlson, Richard Ross, Rollin Busse, Margaret Allison, Barbara Storm, Barbara Barrett, and Leif Masten.

The program will not run late, and will appeal to the entire family with its variety of entertainment. Tickets may be secured at the door. Thirty cents for adults, and twenty cents for high school students or younger children, including admission tax. No seats reserved.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
"Soul and Body" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 23.

The Golden Text was, "Rejoice the soul of thy servant: for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul" (Psalms 86:4).
Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "What? Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's" (I Corinthians 6:19, 20).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Soul is the substance, Life, and intelligence of man, which is individualized, but not in matter. Soul can never reflect anything inferior to Spirit. The spiritual man's consciousness and individuality are reflections of God. They are the emanations of Him who is Life, Truth and Love" (pp. 477, 336).

Arlington Cub Pack

News

Boys of Arlington Heights Cub Pack No. 232 listened intently as Mr. John Y. Beatty told them some strange things as well as some of the more common things about birds of the air, land and sea. The occasion was the November meeting of the Pack.

One of the most astounding stories concerned our well-known ruby-throated humming bird. Mr. Beatty said that they are so small that seven of them are needed to weigh an ounce. They have hearts four times as big as pigeon hearts in proportion to their sizes. They do not flap their wings, as most all other birds do, but turn them over and back again. They can fly forwards as fast as fifty miles an hour, and can fly sideways and even backwards. With their long tongues they suck nectar from the deep recesses of flowers, and catch mosquitos and gnats in the air. The humming bird cannot walk at all. On the other hand, the road runner is a feathered bird which seldom flies, but can run faster than a horse. It catches lizards and snakes and eats them—head first.

Eugene Busse, James Fricke, Norman Stadler, Raymond Wilke, Preston Pingel and Robert Deiber received awards. Dick Everett got in the spot light by being presented with the Lion award, graduation certificate and the Webelos badge. He is the first Cub in our Pack to receive the Webelos badge.

The Cubs saw the feathers which will soon be delivered to them for decorating the Indian headdresses made last month. They are red, green, white and yellow.
A surprise was a visit by Mr. Lihme and his den from Pack 209 of Palatine. All ten Cubs in the den were present. They were glad to attend our Pack meeting and want us to visit them.
It was announced that Mr. Sachs will be unable to hold any more den meetings because he works overtime nearly every night. Cubs in den 10 hope that some understanding father will offer to become their leader for the balance of the season.

Tell of deep sea fishing in Mexico

Quinta Maria, Acapulco, Gro. November 16, 1941

Editor Herald:
I thought the home folks might be interested in some fish. The shark hanging next to my wife was hooked and brought to gaff by her. The sail fish on the left was caught by myself and the other sailfish and shark were hooked by our fishing companions, Mr. and Mrs. Luttrell of Los Angeles. The crew of the fishing boat are in the foreground and we had about a hundred natives surrounding. Note that the sword of the sail fish I caught is broken off—his last lunge was aimed at the boat and pierced the side of the boat (the plank is at least an inch thick) and broke off about 5 inches of the tip.

The day before—the same party—we cruised along shore and saw seven giant mantarays—we harpooned one that weighed an estimated thousand pounds and I took a number of pictures with color film—I am bringing home its tail which is its principal weapon. We are right in the tropics here—it is very hot, never less than 90 degrees in the day, but the ocean breeze tempers the heat.
Regards from
The Laurins.

Junior Woman's club dance a 'whopping' success

And, just as we foretold, everyone had fun at the Arlington Junior Woman's club dance Saturday.

Swirling, luscious formal and short date dresses were combined to make an eye-appealing background for the men. The music by Del Baker was swell. Louise Williams, a member of the Junior League, sang several numbers. Lorraine McCoy, chairman of the dance, saw to it that everything was in tip-top shape for the party.

Dolores Rizzi,
Vance Folkman
are married

November fifteen was an auspicious day for Miss Dolores Marie Rizzi, daughter of Alderman and Mrs. Rudolph Rizzi, 102 S. Dunton ave., and Mr. Vance Folkman, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Folkman, 204 S. State rd. It was their wedding day. They attended service at St. James church at 8 o'clock a. m., when Rev. George Stier conducted High Mass, an impressive ritual dedicated to the Blessed Virgin. Later in the Rizzi home many friends gathered with gifts and good wishes.

In the afternoon the bridal party drove to St. James rectory. The bride attended by her father, Mr. R. Rizzi, was preceded by ring-bearer, Master James Kiedhaus. Next in line, the attendants, Miss Margaret Noll, of Mt. Prospect, bridesmaid with the best man, Mr. Daune Folkman, Miss Annabelle Fischer and Mr. Harold Vetter and a large retinue of wedding guests. A carpeted pathway led to the rectory entrance, where Rev. Geo. Stier and the groom, Mr. Vance Folkman were awaiting the bride under a beautiful arch. The ceremony at 3 o'clock was impressive, solemnized when Pastor Stier, using one ring ritual spoke words making these twain one, this joy and sorrow till death doth separate and Mr. Rizzi gave his daughter to Vance Folkman to love and cherish as they journey side by side along the pathway of life. Miss Marie Fischer reverently sang "Ave Marie."

The bride was ethereally beautiful, robed in a gown of white satin and velvet, her veil with pearl tiara adding a dainty effect to a rhinestone necklace, and a shower bouquet of white roses and white sweet peas made a charming ensemble.

Miss Margaret Noll (bridesmaid), was attractively attired in a gown of duobonnet taffeta and velveteen with blusher veil and harmonizing accessories. Her necklace (gift of the bride), gave the finishing touch to her costume. Her arm bouquet of chrysanthemums were of a harmonizing color.

Miss Annabelle Fischer wore a becoming gown of coral color taffeta and velveteen material, blusher veil trimmings and arm bouquet of pink mums, made a pleasing ensemble. Her necklace was a gift from the bride also.

James Howard Kiedhaus (ring-bearer), carried a white satin pillow heart shaped, with white streamers with the ring resting on the dainty cushion, did his part in a manner befitting his formal tuxedo suit, as impressively as other members of the party.

Mr. Vance Folkman and his attendants, Mr. Daune Folkman and Mr. Harold Vetter were attired in tuxedos and wore white boutonnieres with dignity becoming the occasion.

Mrs. R. Rizzi wore a gown of black crepe, her corsage was white pom poms.

Mrs. Aug. Folkman also wore a black crepe dress and white corsage.

sage. Mrs. Uselding (grandmother of the bride), wore becoming black crepe gown, her corsage was white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Folkman (the groom's grandmother) was attired in black crepe gown with white floral design and her corsage was white flowers.

In the evening a reception was held in the field house in Recreation Park, where a large company was entertained.

A bounteous repast was served to 150 guests. Decorations of white bells and streamers gave a festive air to dining room with table decorations forming a fine background. Center attraction was a wonderful cake, ornamented with miniature bride and groom, a veritable mountain of sweetness. A happy period of congratulations and feasting with music in the air. When the orchestra swung into the rhythm "I Love You Truly" with Miss Marie Fischer, vocal accompanist, the bride and groom danced to the music and pleasure of the company. Music, dancing and supper at midnight rounded out a busy happy day for the bride and groom and all the company.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Folkman went on a trip to New York and Canada. They were followed by farewells of the guests, unanimously wishing them a happy journey through life, attended by peace and prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Folkman have many loyal friends, associates in high school and earlier days and older friends whose good wishes will follow them to their new home, Pullman, where he is pleasantly employed as teacher in Educational department of Aircraft Division of Pullman Car Co., located at Pullman, Ill.

Out of town guests were from Palos Park, Keonsha, Wis., Aurora, Bondufl, Wis., Mt. Prospect.

Mrs. Wm. B. Forrest has interesting holiday in Michigan

Mrs. Wm. B. Forrest spent last week visiting friends in Mt. Pleasant, Mich., and while there had the privilege of attending a concert featuring the colored soprano Miss Dorothy Maynor, which was given under the auspices of the Central Michigan College of Education. Mrs. Forrest enjoyed immensely Miss Maynor's interpretation of the music of Handel, Schubert, Debussy, Strauss, Schumann and Chopin, and particularly enjoyed her rendering of the negro spirituals.

Another trip of interest to Mrs. Forrest was a day's journey to Houghton Lake, or the hunter's paradise, where she counted in a short hour and fifteen minutes 86 deer. She had the privilege of visiting a hunting camp, where each camp of four hunters or more is allowed one doe.

One of the party had the misfortune to have his car badly damaged by a deer that jumped in its path, but the week was one of pleasure and adventure.

Miss Wenzel, the daughter of the Albert L. Wenzels, chose to wear white brocade for her marriage to Marvin Pingel, son of the Charles Pingels of the village, which took place in the St. John's Evangelical church at 7 p. m. on Thanksgiving evening. Her gown was cut on princess lines, fashioned with a long train and the sleeves were long and close fitting. Her only jewels were the pearls which had belonged to her mother, many years. Lilies of the valley held the crown of her tulle veil of fingertip length and she carried a bride's bouquet of white roses.

Tall white candelabra and white chrysanthemums and palms furnished the background for the candlelight service, which was performed by Rev. Kampenkel, and the bride made a lovely picture as she came down the aisle on the arm of her father to the strains of "Love's Wedding March," played by Mr. Herman Grueneberg of Chicago, formerly of the village.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Ruth Secord of Chicago sang "Liebestraum" and following the service she sang "At Dawning."

The bride's sister, Mrs. Russell Bates of Chicago served as matron of honor and was crowned in dusty pink. The tulle blouse of her gown was of velvet and the full bouffant skirt of tulle. She carried bronze chrysanthemums.

Gems of thought
CULTIVATING HAPPINESS
Happiness can be built only on virtue, and must of necessity have truth for its foundation.
—Coleridge.

Human felicity is produced not so much by great pieces of good fortune that seldom happen, as by little advantages that occur every day.
—Benjamin Franklin.

Self-ignorance, self-will, self-righteousness, lust, covetousness, envy, revenge, are foes to grace, peace, and progress; they must be met manfully and overcome, or they will uproot all happiness.
—Mary Baker Eddy.

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

BUICK BUILDS FOR DEFENSE

Our assignment: Building Pratt & Whitney valve-in-head aircraft engines for defense use.

THE needs of the defense program dictate, as in good sense they should, how many Buicks we can build for you in 1942.

The requirements of national security determine what materials can be used, and which ones must be conserved for our country's defense.

But—and this is spur and hope to men of ingenuity—there is no limit in any of that on how well we may build with the materials at our command.

So we invite you to look upon this car not as you would any ordinary new model, but as an unusual vehicle built to square with unusual times.

Check into the strength we have forged and hammered and wrought into the frame, the chassis, the drive.

Look into the everlasting softness which creative discontent with "good enough" has provided in soft, all-coil springs.

Dig into the engine, and see how resourceful engineering has stepped up the efficiency of valve-in-head design with Domite pistons and FIREBALL compression—how it also enables you to conserve fuel while actually getting more power through Buick's exclusive Compound Carburetion.

You may have little interest normally in things like connecting rods and main bearings and wheel rims.

But it is of utmost importance now that Buick knew how to strengthen rods for heavier duties without increasing weight—that Buick found a way to oil-finish crankshaft journals so as to double bearing life under equal loads—that every Buick wheel has a rim that not only provides a steadier and smoother ride but actually insures top tire mileage.

Little of this special ruggedness shows in the suave outward look of this trim and steady-rolling Buick—the beauty you see there is merely the garnish on the solid substance beneath.

But examine such structural details and we believe you'll quickly discover one fact:

While there may be a shortage of cars and of materials from which to make them, there's no shortage in stamina in the cars Buick builds.

And what is more important in any car these days?

No other car has ALL THIS FOR YOU IN 'FORTY-TWO

FIREBALL STRAIGHT-EIGHT VALVE-IN-HEAD ENGINE
COMPOUND CARBURETION (standard on most models)
OIL-CUSHIONED CRANKSHAFT PINS AND JOURNALS
STURDI-LITE CONNECTING RODS

Jewel Food Stores back defense effort of saving of paper

In an effort to support the all-important National Defense program in every way possible, Jewel Food Stores this week announced their plans to cooperate with the Office of Production Management's request for a 25 per cent reduction in packing and wrapping paper supplies.

Not only has Jewel pledged to cut down paper waste in all store operations and find substitutes for this valuable defense product, but all Jewel stores have copies of the Consumer Pledge for Total Defense, released by the Office of Price Administration, which will be available to the consumer starting Saturday, November 22 and which customers may sign as their part in this nation-wide conservation program.

The pledge reads as follows:

"As a consumer, I will do my part to make my home, my community, my country ready, efficient and strong."

"I will buy carefully."

"I will take good care of the things I have."

"I will waste nothing"

INDUSTRY JOINS DRIVE

As a result of the OPM's plea for a 25 per cent reduction in civilian use of paperboard and wrappings, many major organizations have undertaken conservation by self-imposed restrictions. No drastic measures are expected to be necessary in this country, even though many paper supplies are reported to be dwindling fast, but paper trade sources predict that during the next year defense requirements may take about two-thirds of all paper board production and about one-third of other types of paper.

According to many paper executives, shortages can be expected

What a difference improved lighting makes!

BLUE MONDAYS WERE PRACTICALLY BLACK... IT WAS THAT DIM AND DARK IN OUR BASEMENT

NOW SEE...THERE'S NOTHING LIKE LIGHT TO CHASE THE GLOOM...MAKE WORK A LOT EASIER.

HERE'S WHAT TURNED THE TRICK!

I simply removed the old inefficient light bulb, and had a scientific fixture put in its place. It cost me less than $2.00, and what a grand difference that little change made!

Why not check your lighting, too! Ask for a HOME LIGHTING ADVISOR

The home lighting advisor will measure the light in every part of every room in your house such as the card room, music room, dining room and kitchen, as well as special rooms like the game room, the work shop and the laundry. She will show you how better light means better sight, and she'll also suggest changes to make your rooms lovelier, homier and larger looking. Let her help you! This service is free and without obligation, and you need only phone or send a post card to your local Public Service Store asking to have the home lighting advisor call.

Thousands have visited this Prospect Heights home

This model home has been visited by many thousands. It will go to some person, identity unknown until the eventual hour. In the meantime interest in the home is increasing daily and the fifty cents donations are increasing in number, approaching the goal that will also make possible a second gift—a community house for Prospect Heights.

In designing the Prospect Home full account of modern living was taken, yet the richness of Colonial heritage is retained in the exterior design.

Modern in its efficient plan of four levels each connected by only one-half flight of stairs. Grounds easily accessible as an outdoor living space from the French door in the Dining room. Modern in its daylight basement with full sized windows. Modern in its kitchen with lino-walls, steel cabinets and air conditioning. Modern gas heated porcelain sink, hot running water, full insulation, steel casement windows, tile-text asphalt tile bath and overhead garage door. Modern in all these things, yet homey and comfortable in the best American tradition.

Traditional in its entrance porch, its crisp Colonial detail, its contrast of white trim against red brick, and Colonial in its proportions.

The novel daylight basement gives the plan its character, which is described as four levels. The first or basement level naturally divides itself into a recreation section 10 ft. by 27 ft. and a utility section.

The second or living level contains the living room, dining room, and kitchen. The large opening between the living and dining rooms gives a feeling of spaciousness, and has a flexibility which allows the use of dining space for expanded living room functions.

Up another six steps is the bedroom-bath level. This half flight floor difference greatly lightens the housework, and at the same time provides adequate privacy for bedrooms. On the fourth level is a large room which can be finished as den or bed room.

ba, Michigan, also a cousin, Miss Eileen Labre, of Chicago, and Mr. Joseph O'Rose and daughter, Pepper, at a delicious turkey dinner Thanksgiving day.

Do you want another A.E.F., more European battlefields, filled with the bodies of our boys and more veteran hospitals, crowded with worse than corpses?

Prospect Heights tackles its water problem

The old pioneer idea still lives in Prospect Heights, where the problems of one are the problems of all. A community governed by cooperation rather than incorporation can still do big things themselves and at little cost.

The unusual rain this fall has caused some inconvenience because of poor drainage in one or two spots in Prospect Heights and surrounding farms. Although this is a problem that cannot be eliminated overnight, this community is taking a realistic viewpoint and is meeting this problem with tangible cooperation and labor.

The fact that some twenty-five homes in the third and fourth additions receive substantial amounts of water, during and after each rain, indicates that the main tile (put in several years ago) to the drainage creek, is seriously overloaded. A search for the cause of this overload is now being made. The conditions in the 2nd, 5th and 6th Additions also indicate tile difficulties.

The Prospect Heights Improvement Association has sponsored a movement among members and non-members to get rid of the water. On recent Sundays approximately 80 men have created a drainage ditch from the lagoon. Men with shovels — and with or without boots — turned out en masse and dug the ditch to a maximum depth of 3½ ft. for a distance of about 1500 ft. Over 30 additional men have already offered to contribute to a Drainage Fund for additional work. Contributions should be turned over to the Improvement Association treasurer. Local farmers have volunteered to help with horses, scoops, and by cash contributions to widen the ditch.

Since the work was done the water has dropped over eighteen inches, indicating the drainage of from two to three million gallons. However, the two to three hour rain on Wednesday, November 19, raised the lagoon five inches in four days in spite of the ditch. It is estimated that over one hundred acres of ground drain directly into the lagoon.

The Association's Drainage committee is still in contact with State, County and Township authorities to secure all possible aid for the dredging of the Drainage Creek.

Mr. Clem Hixson and Mr. E. Van Den Berg have been delegated to survey all tile for size and slope. Anyone having knowledge of whereabouts of any tile will materially aid these men by dropping a note in the "Drainage" box in the drug store. Suggestions are also solicited. When this survey is completed, the Drainage committee expects to turn all data over to a drainage expert to secure his experienced opinion as to the best further procedure to eliminate the water and its resulting inconveniences.

A community that meets its unavoidable problems realistically and cooperatively is bound to become a better community in which to live. Prospect Heights is a community of modern homes, in a modern age, but with the old town-meeting, pioneer spirit.

Congratulations also to Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Swift who celebrated their 27th wedding anniversary on Wednesday, November 26.

Congratulations also to Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Swift who celebrated their second wedding anniversary this week.

Mrs. Dick Steele enjoyed dinner with Mrs. Nan Rauhen last Tuesday evening.

Bobby and Jerry Dallstream had a grand time in Chicago over the Thanksgiving holidays visiting with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W. McIntyre, while their mother and dad were busy helping get the new department store ready to open Saturday morning.

LIFE WITH MOTHER

November 21, 1941

Dear Eleanor:

Before anything else, let me tell you how pleased everyone here is, with your beautiful drawing of the entrance to Hill Top. Indeed, we WILL want to use it as a book plate. We'll just add the usual Ex Libris, though I never could see why one should feel obligated to add "From the Books," if the name of the owner was also written.

We've made it a practice to write both of our names on every book we purchase for the family library. After we're gone, the four boys can, if they desire, distribute the books equally between themselves. There should be no saying that one of them got most of Father's books, leaving Mother's silly reading to the others.

Dandelions in November! Edward brought me a bouquet of them this week. The white lilac bush we transplanted in September had a cluster of buds at the end of October. And, I saw cherry blossoms in a jar on the counter of the local dairy on the same month. Yet, we had snow the earliest this year since 1889.

It is indeed, a changeable world. We're witnessing a great spectacle and we are definitely a part of it, whether we want to be or not.

Food prices soaring. Government priorities on what seem the silliest things. Shortage of everything, even hairpins and safety pins. Merchants singing the same song: "We can't promise. Madam. Deliveries are so uncertain." And taxes, taxes on what they do sell us. This year we're urged to raise pigs; last year we were told not to. "Plant gardens, grow everything," says the Eleanor I don't know. The result? A very confusing state of mind for most of us.

Well, I'll be darned if it's going to get me down.

We're going right on in our family with great plans for the future. If the war comes, we'll have to stand and take it. But, we're going to try and keep courage and hope in the hearts of our children, no matter what the cost may be to us. Gee I do sound militant, don't I?

Thanksgiving Day for 1941 has passed. If ever there was an American holiday carrying with it all that is best in American traditions, it is this day.

The editor of our local paper put it very well, I think, in a Thanksgiving Day editorial called, "Faith and Courage in America."

FILES BANKRUPTCY

To quote: "Do you doubt it? Then you must have forgotten that this country is more than railroads and farms and factory chimneys, more than mountains or the pound of surf on sand or elm trees on the front lawn or crickets chirping in the summer twilight. You must have forgotten the simple truths that America is really people, millions of people, with homes and children, hopes, ideals, faith, ambition, freedom to achieve what they want—and guts!"

We planted a cherry tree last Sunday. Not just an ordinary tree. It is a cross between a cherry and a plum. Sounds interesting, doesn't it?

It turned out to be quite a ceremony. We had unexpected guests arrive just as Rob was about to turn up the first spade of sod. We had picked the spot for the tree with some deliberation, but I asked our friends opinion anyway. Not one agreed. Frank wanted it placed along the flagstone walk to the house. That is, when we get the flagstones and make a walk. Frank Senior, thought it would look beautiful near a corner of the house. You know—white blossoms, white house. Jim didn't want it where Rob and I planned it, because it would spoil the appearance of a Mall. This struck me as the funniest reason of all and caused no end of assorted remarks.

It ended with everyone helping to carry water and dig the hole—in the place we originally selected.

Brevity, 'tis said, is not only the soul of wit, but of conversation, speechmaking and I suppose I could add, letter writing, as well. Balsac, once apologized to a friend: "I would write a shorter letter if I had more time." I guess it does take time and brilliance to condense one's thoughts to a few words. When I sit down to write my bi-weekly letter to you, there is so much that has occurred since the last one, I never know what to tell or leave out. Hence, I usually write it all. You might let me know how you feel about this. At any rate, this letter is to be a short one, for the simple reason that the boys are all at home today for the Friday after Thanksgiving holiday. Consequently, there is a great deal of excitement here at Hill Top and I can't bear to miss out on a thing.

With the best of love to all at your house,

Your old friend,

Mary.

P. S.—Did you read where our childhood favorite, Mary Pickford, is to take the part of the Mother in the movie version of "Life With Father?" We must make a date to see it together.

Foreign and domestic war situations

Weekly market review and farm outlook

The war situation, inasmuch as the development of the war situation will have an important bearing upon agricultural prices in the months and years ahead, this factor should receive continuous attention. At present the German army seems to be almost stopped in northern and central Russia, but is steadily pressing toward the oil fields of the Caucasus both by way of the Crimean Peninsula and around the northern edge of the Black Sea. If Germany is defeated, it will be because of a lack of motor fuel. The longer and more intensive the Russian War, the more Germany is obliged to draw upon her reserve. The Caucasian oil supply would be of considerable help as would that farther south in Iran. Undoubtedly the British army will assist Russia in keeping Germany away from these vital supplies. If the oil can be kept from Germany, the increased output of airplanes by Britain and the United States may become more and more effective in obtaining air supremacy, in destroying German refineries and munition works, and finally, the morale of the German people. This may take a long time, but seems to be the present method of procedure.

Japan finds herself in a very serious predicament. She surely knows the United States will not desert China or Russia, expose the Philippines to Japanese conquest and destroy our access to vital raw materials in the East Indies and China. On the one hand it would be difficult for Japan to give up her conquest of China. Undoubtedly she has no thought of doing that. On the other hand if she goes to war with the British and American navies, her defeat is practically inevitable. The present conference would therefore seem to be a method of stalling for time in order that the unpleasant day of reckoning might be postponed. The chances of war in the Pacific are increasing.

Should an outbreak of war take place in the Pacific, we shall, for a time at least, be confronted with increased transportation difficulties in that area. Many raw materials would be affected, including tropical vegetable oils, rubber, silk, tin, sugar and manila hemp. Although at this time the House amendments to the House version of the neutrality act, yet, the present indications point to a war lasting into 1943 with the involvement of additional nations. The United States is and will undoubtedly be involved, and will be inclined to sanction more drastic controls of all sorts of activities including these affecting prices.

Domestic developments. Not a great deal has been heard during the past week concerning price control legislation. President Roosevelt, however, has publicly expressed himself as being in favor of heavier taxes in the near future. As far as prices are concerned the implications are bearish. Business continues at a high level, however, with every effort being made to increase the production of armaments and related materials.

Most disturbing occurrences during the past week have been the strikes and threats of strikes. Several hundred thousand workers are involved. If the railway strike goes into effect, the entire transportation system of the United States will be tied up and the usual incomes of these striking workers will not be available to purchase farm products and other consumer goods. The long time result will depend upon the terms of final settlement. If the 30 per cent increase in wages for the nonoperating unions is granted and we have increases granted as requested for other unions threatening to strike, these increased wages will add to cost of production and workers' incomes, both of which influences will tend to raise prices. On the other hand, an alternative outcome is for more strict government control of labor in the interests of uninterrupted production for the war effort. This might be used as a further means of controlling prices through the control of wages.

Local farmer wins county corn crown; 108 bushels per acre

An outstanding corn yield of 108.68 bushels per acre has won the corn growing grand championship of Cook County for C. E. Burch of Palatine, in the 1941 National DeKalb hybrid corn growing contest. Officials of the biggest corn yield competition also report that over 10,000 farmers from 13 principal corn producing states were entered in this contest. His yield is all the more remarkable when it is borne in mind that the national average this year is only 31.1 bushels per acre, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. His yield was certified for production competition by two farmer neighbors.

The county winner's corn was grown under ordinary farming conditions from DeKalb hybrid seed. In recognition of his achievement, the winner is being presented with a beautiful trophy.

A corn yield of 118.98 bushels per acre has won the grand championship of Lake county for Wm. Wirtz of McHenry. Other Lake county winners who were runners-up, and who also received valuable prizes are Roy Behm of Grays Lake, Elden C. Gadke of Palatine, Frank Farm of Antioch, and Jay Allanson of Mundelein, Ill.

AAA crop rates except for wheat lower for 1942

Although rates of payment for planting within special crop allotments under the 1942 AAA farm program, are lower than in 1941, except in the case of wheat, the rates and other provisions of the program are directed at greater conservation and record production of farm products needed under the farm defense program, Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes announced today.

As in former years, Cook county farmers may earn two types of payments under the 1942 program—one for planting within special allotments such as soil-depleting crops as corn, wheat, cotton, tobacco, potatoes, and the other for carrying out soil-building practices, payments for which are larger for 1942 than 1941.

Due principally to a substantial decrease in the 1942 wheat acreage allotment, the wheat payment rate for 1942 is 10.5 cents a bushel, compared with 8 cents in 1941, increase of 2.5 cents a bushel.

The corn rate is 8 cents for 1942, compared with 9 cents in 1941. The 1941 cotton rate of 1.25 cents a pound is decreased to 1.25 cents a pound for 1942. The potato rate has been lowered from 2.3 cents a bushel to 2 cents a bushel. Tobacco rates have been lowered from .8 to .7 cents a pound for burley; 1.5 to 1.4 cents a pound for fire-cured, and .8 to .7 cents a pound for cigar-filled. All rates are based on normal yield of allotted acreage.

As in previous years, payments under the program depend upon the $500,000,000 annual appropriation authorized in the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1933, and rates are subject to a 10 per cent revision up or down—depending upon the degree to which farmers generally participate in the program—when final payments are made.

In place of total soil-depleting allotments established under past programs, the 1942 program provides that a specified percentage of cropland be devoted to soil-building and soil-conserving uses. Mr. Hughes stressed the importance of farmers planning their programs this year in line with the new conservation program. The program is aimed at increasing production of specific crops needed for defense.

Production can be doubled with good feed, care

Cows poorly cared for and underfed on poor rations may actually double their production when well-managed and fed balanced rations according to production.

Since many Illinois dairy herds are now being handled and fed with care under the food production program, one might not expect widespread improvement in feeding and management practices to boost production that much. However, there are thousands of cows producing much below inherited capacity which are making inadequate returns because of poor feed and care.

The feed cost of producing a pound of butterfat or a hundred pounds of milk may be twice as much on some farms as on others. The kind of cows has a lot to do with the cost, but the ration and the way the cows are fed also are important considerations. C. S. Rhode, extension dairy specialist of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, says that farm grains supplemented with feeds that furnish protein at the lowest cost will make the best combination of concentrates for this winter's feeding.

At present prices, soybean meal, cottonseed meal, brewer's grain, distiller's grain, gluten feed, soybeans, and wheat bran are the cheapest sources of protein, in the order listed.

If the roughage supply consists only of good legume hay, the grain mixture should contain 11 to 12 per cent total protein. If the roughage is partly legume and partly non-legume, the grain mixture should contain about 15 per cent total protein, depending somewhat upon the quality of the hay. If the roughage is all non-legume, the grain mixture should contain 16 to 17 per cent total protein.

U. S. NAVY RECRUITING OFFICER PRESENTS APPLICANT WITH NEW "BADGE OF HONOR"

Production plan stresses need of weed eradication

Urgent need of more feed and food under the farm defense production program has fired up renewed attacks on such crop enemies as obnoxious weeds.

Anytime before the ground freezes is the best time to apply chlorates to kill weeds, according to E. E. Cockrum, agronomist of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture. Sodium chlorate is the only chemical recommended by the college for perennial weeds. It does not leave the soil unfit for crop growth nearly so long as some of the others. Furthermore, it may be obtained in crystalline form or in commercial mixtures containing 50 to 70 per cent chlorate.

Such weeds as hoary cress, leafy spurge, wild garlic and bull nettle require the most chlorate for eradication. Field bindweed is about average in resistance to the chemical. Canada thistle, however, is one of the easier weeds to eradicate with sodium chlorate.

Three to five pounds of sodium chlorate are recommended for each square rod. It is advisable to treat about five feet beyond the visible infested area. Following treatment, the soil should not be cultivated until all the weeds are eradicated.

The next best time to apply the chemical is in the spring, when areas treated in the fall should be checked to observe the effectiveness of the first application. Two pounds more, applied on areas where the weeds have not been killed, may be needed to complete the job.

There is less fire hazard when chlorates are applied dry instead of in solution, although either method is satisfactory if equipment is available, Cockrum said.

Percheron breeders to exhibit at live stock show

Two Cook County Percheron breeders will be represented at the International Live Stock show, opening Saturday at the Chicago Amphitheatre. One stallion and five mares have been entered by Frank G. Rathje, Palatine and one young mare by W. H. Pauling of Arlington Heights.

The Rathje entries are headed by a three-year-old stallion, Silver Dawn Konarno, grandson of Car not and Koncaralys, two of the best known names in all Percheron prize winners Virginia Dare, Miss Josephine—junior and reserve grand champion mare at the 1941 Wisconsin State Fair, and Lady Lee, a yearling prize winner at Wisconsin.

Mr. Pauling's young mare is named Katrina's Princess. She is a two-year-old daughter of the former Rathje herd sire, Cy Laet, grand champion at the International Live Stock show in 1932.

State Farm Bureau president compares labor, industry and agriculture in present crisis

Earl C. Smith speaks at I. A. A. meeting Thursday

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 27.—In a strong plea for national unity, Earl C. Smith, president of the Illinois Agricultural Association, challenged labor to during the period of emergency, in his annual address at the 27th meeting of the Association here today, now being attended by a number of Cook county delegates.

Declaring that organized farmers have supported labor in its "legitimate efforts to improve working conditions, and to establish a reasonable standard of wages," the IAA president added that as related to farm prices the purchasing power of labor today is higher than at any time for which dependable records are available. "It now stands," he said, "at nearly one-fourth over that of 1939 and 76 per cent over that of 1919."

Calling for united support of the government, Smith declared, "The present crisis calls for statesmanship and patriotism of the highest order, and politics should and must be adjourned." He urged that "constitutional methods, devoid of personalities and partisan considerations," be used in determining defense policies.

The Agricultural Adjustment Act has been of great value to farmers and to the nation as a whole, in that it has provided a reserve supply of foodstuffs for defense needs, Smith declared in a review of its accomplishments since 1933. Declaring that the argument that it is a program of scarcity has now been abandoned by its opponents, he defended the present basis of the act against proposed changes and warned against the injection of political considerations and expansion of function in its administration.

Recalling the insistence of farm organizations that all administrative personnel for the act be selected by a vote of farmers participating in and affected by the act, and that their activities be strictly confined to the field of agricultural adjustment, commodity loans connected with it, and soil conservation practices, Smith said, "As time goes on we have been forced to witness the spreading of this administrative machinery into broader fields of activity, the creeping in of some partisan influences, at least in some sections, the addition of unnecessary personnel, and extension of the costs of administration far beyond that which is justified."

Higher administrative costs, he emphasized, are the farmer's pocket. He does not rest with the local administrators, he said, but results from "policies and regulations coming from higher up."

He attacked a proposal to empower the governor of the Farm Credit Administration to approve any officer or employee retained by the boards of directors or to withhold his salary, as an unwarranted grant of centralized authority.

Pointing a parallel between World War No. 1 conditions and today, Smith said, "It was a similar condition in 1917-1918 that resulted later in the accumulation of farm commodity supplies far in excess of domestic and export requirements. These surpluses eventually forced farm prices to the lowest levels in history. Farmers cannot afford to forget the long years of effort it took to secure recognition of the need of restoring agricultural prices to fair and reasonable levels."

The program has been responsible for the approach to parity levels, and in some cases, to a little above parity levels, in the price of farm products, he asserted. "While it is true that much of the increase during 1941 is the result of stimulated business and exports in connection with defense," he said, "a review of farm prices and agricultural income since 1932, including 1941, is convincing as to the soundness and effectiveness of the Agricultural Adjustment Act and the need for its continuance and refinement and for simplification in its operation."

Smith emphasized that at the same time the nation has been furnished with an adequate supply of farm commodities. "Coming into the present emergency," he said, "farmers of the nation have the greatest supply of basic farm commodities in the country's history." He inquired whether industry had accomplished the accumulation of a similar supply of basic materials available for the present emergency, and whether labor had trained a sufficient reserve of skilled workmen for the needs of the present.

Speaking briefly on state issues, Smith declared that the defeat of the milk control bill in the House of Representatives was regrettable. "The bill was in the interest of consumers of milk as well as of producers," he said. He explained.

Huge Chicago show opening Saturday

Chicago, Nov. 17.—Of first importance on the fall calendar of events to stockmen and farmers the country over is the first week of December, which this year will mark the 42nd anniversary of the continent's largest annual agricultural show, the International Live Stock Exposition and Horse Show. The 1941 Exposition will be held from November 29 to December 6 in Chicago's huge International Amphitheatre and will overflow a large area of the adjoining Stockyards, where hundreds of carloads of choice cattle, sheep, and swine will be displayed.

Exhibits from 37 States. Officials of the Exposition announce that entries have thus far been received from prospective exhibitors in 37 states and four Canadian provinces, the largest number of states thus far ever represented. Purebred herds and flocks will be soon en route to Chicago from such distances as California, Oregon, and Washington on the West to nearly all of the Atlantic seaboard states on the East, and from Canada to Texas.

All past records have been broken in the number of entries of baby calves, lambs, and pigs that will be shown this year by 554 farm boys and girls from 17 states in the junior classes of the Exposition. They will exhibit 825 head of steers, lambs, and pigs of their own raising, an increase by a wide margin over any past year. Additional Judge Named. Because of the unprecedented size of the fat cattle entry at the coming show, it is announced that two judges will officiate in place of the one man judging system followed in the past.

Two prominent Canadian cattle authorities will select the prize winners in these classes this year. W. L. Carlyle, manager of the Alberta ranch, owned by the former Prince of Wales and present Duke of Windsor, and J. Charles Yule, also of Alberta, will act in this capacity.

"The cattle entry for all divisions of the show, including both the purebred classes and steers, is at an all time record," says B. H. Heide, secretary-manager of the Exposition. Of the three principal beef breeds, the Shorthorn, Hereford, and Aberdeen-Angus, which yield a major share of the country's finest meat cuts, Shorthorns will be shown by owners from 18 states and two provinces of Canada; Herefords will come from 19 states and Canada; and Aberdeen-Angus from 22 states and Canada.

Sheep will be sent to the show from 24 states and Canada, swine from 24 states, and draft horses from 15 states and two Canadian provinces.

All railroads serving Chicago have announced specially reduced fares from many points along their lines that will be in effect during the week of the Exposition.

Palatine pulls upset with last minute victory over alumni

Says

On the basis of the practice games played it would appear that three teams stand out as ones to watch in the coming Northwest Conference race. These three appear to be Bensenville, Ela, and Palatine. The only meeting of the season between Ela and Palatine will be Friday in the conference opener on the Pirates' court. Both Bensenville and Ela appear to have more scoring punch than the other conference teams. Palatine has the biggest team and last week's brilliant effort in whipping the Alumni indicates that the Pirates may be the strongest defensive in the loop.

Results Give Ela High Rank

This is the way the pre-season games give an indication that the teams named may be up in the running. Bensenville has scored 43 and 50 points in beating two worthy opponents, Arlington and Elmhurst Catholics. Ela beat Highland Park who in turn beat Arlington. The Cards are rated high in the Northeast loop. Ela also defeated Barrington by 11 points after Barrington had beaten Waukegan and Waukegan had subdued Grant twice by top heavy margins. Grant in turn had beaten Northbrook. That seems to run Ela about the best in the north end of the league at the outset. Antioch, expected to have a potent team was swamped by Libertyville a few days after Palatine outplayed the Wildcats. Palatine had edged out Waukegan and beaten Evanston. The Pirates also beat an alumni team which had won two conference titles in a row while losing only one game.

Real Tests Start Friday

These early season scores really mean little, however. Some schools started practice earlier than others and some have more experience material at the start and ended material at the end of the regular season. This will no doubt be true of Antioch and Barrington.

The first conference games Friday find Barrington favored at Grant, Antioch a probable winner over Northbrook, Bensenville with an edge over Waukegan, and the Palatine-Alumni clash a toss up with the Pirates having a slight edge if they make full use of their height on rebounds.

Toss Up In Northeast

Over in the Northeast loop anything can happen with the teams appearing to be very evenly matched. We have a hunch that a certain group of four teams will win more games than the other four but we would not have much idea which would win the most. We think that Crystal Lake and Woodstock will be rather strong, having a number of veterans back plus good lightweights. On that same basis Niles should rate a first division berth and the same goes for Arlington. But then take a look at Warren's small veteran five. Kelton's boys may keep on where they left off in football. They have the winning spirit up there. No doubt of that. Bergstrom has one of the tallest teams in the league at Libertyville that has possibilities of being better than last year's five which took fourth place. Lake Forest has in Lightbody and Sorenson, a pair of real good boys and Tom Short's teams are always tough to beat. Leyden may get the cellar position for the boys who were expected to move up to first string this year lack height and also some of the best performers dropped out of school.

Picks For This Week

It would not surprise us if the Northeast race were so close that at least four teams would have a chance to finish on top down to the last few weeks of the season. Our picks for the opening week are Woodstock to take Warren, Crystal Lake to trip Lake Forest, Niles to dispose of Leyden, and Arlington to edge out Libertyville just by the margin of the home court advantage.

Names All County Team

Both of the Waukegan papers, the News-Sun and the Post, came out this week with All Lake County football teams which they say were selected as a result of polling the coaches. Boys from the Northeast Conference named by the Post were Doyle of Warren at end, Baldi of Warren at center, Wirth of Warren quarterback, Zelenko of Warren at right half, Quasey of Lake Forest at guard and Hoskins of Libertyville for tackle. The News-Sun had Doyle, Wirth, and Zelenko of Warren and Morrow of Lake Forest on their mythical team with Hoskins of Libertyville, Baldi of Warren, and Quasey of Lake Forest on the second eleven. The Post gave Swanson of Warren and Cook of Lake Forest second team mention. Bledsoe of Grant was named to a second team

Arlington gets revenge from Bisons, 36-30

Arlington and Bensenville met for the second time on the hard wood court Tuesday with the results just the reverse of the first meeting earlier at Arlington. The Cardinal varsity won a well deserved 36-30 victory while the Bisons lightweights came from behind to win the junior game 21-10.

Arlington was ahead all the way in the feature game after the first few minutes and had a lead of 20-13 at the half. The Bisons were not up to the shooting form of two previous games while Arlington's team play and work on rebounds showed considerable improvement. Millay's ball handling really stood out while Becker and Coleman were good on rebounds and had a deadly eye at close range. Becker got 13 points and Coleman 11. Millay made three baskets and had three others taken away because of traveling.

Kernats, soph guard, was the hot shot for Bensenville with 12 points. Gutnik and Buman did not play as well as in former games but the Bisons made a battle of it all the way and with a little better shot percentage would have had a chance to win. However, their weakness was from a defensive rather than offensive standpoint.

Two baskets in the last minute of play by Miller, gave Bensenville the lightweight victory. Arlington had led 15-7 at the half. The loss of Mayer and Kleiner on fouls in the final quarter hurt Arlington.

The officiating by Clinge of Barrington and Kouzmanoff of Arlington was high class work in any league.

The Joke Is On Us

All season we have been writing about Warren as having such small kids in football it was most of a shame they had to play the big bruisers from the other schools in the Northeast Conference. Either those Warren boys put on weight mighty fast this fall or Bob Kelton was pulling a fast one to get us to give him team a low rating. We know Bob never likes to be picked to win. He said once this fall that as long as we picked his team to lose he was pretty sure to win. Of course we were not at all having Warren win the conference football title even though we picked them for fifth as we like to see the under dog come out on top. Fact is though, Warren was not the under dog but just appeared that way to us. The all county selections in the Waukegan papers gave the weights of some of the Warren boys and were we amazed. Doyle listed as 185 was only 165 in September. Baldi listed as 176 was only 155 in our dope. Wirth at 170 was 12 pounds over weight, and Zelenko had jumped from 155 to 175. We are not trying to take any credit away from that great Warren team. We are just pointing out that if those Waukegan figures are correct the joke is on us.

Just a Suggestion

Ohio State hired the outstanding prep coach of their state, Paul Brown, to take over the Buckeyes in football this year and with mediocre material he brought the school a tie for second in the Big Ten. Illinois has a football coach, Dan Devine, who has a coach in prep circles with a record comparable to Brown's. How about support for Pat Holmes of Oak Park for the Illinois job?

Former champs slowed by tall high school five

In one of the greatest upsets in the history of Palatine basketball the high school defeated the Alumni 18-17 in the annual homecoming game last week Wednesday. A crowd of close to 700 persons attended expecting to see the Alumni boys run away with an easy victory as they had done in most of their games of the past two seasons. Instead they saw a courageous team of tall high school lads slow down the famed team of other years and nose out a victory in the final seconds on a long basket by Harris.

It was the first time in over two years that a team on which Snyder, Hahnfeldt, Hildebrandt, DeBerge had played had met defeat on the Palatine court. The high school team averaging over six feet contained no regulars from last year, but they put up such a tight defense that the graduates were forced to shoot long. Most of their shots were hurried and few hit the mark. Hahnfeldt, who set a Palatine scoring record of 309 points and led the conference in 1940-41 was held to three baskets, all scored on a fast break. Hildebrandt, second high last year, was held without a basket. It was upon this pair that the high school defense concentrated its efforts. Hollinger was the only member of the team of the past few years who was absent.

The high school got a lead after three minutes of play on a long basket by Jack Hayes and then Howes tipped in a rebound and followed with a pivot shot to put the school boys in front where they stayed until early in the last quarter. The high school led 13-8 at the half and 13-12 starting the final period, having failed to tally in the third period. Baskets by Fink and Snyder gave the Alumni a 17-14 lead with five minutes to play. By this time both Howes and Hahnfeldt were out on fouls. The Alumni elected to stall but lost the ball with two minutes to play and Scholow promptly scored a basket to make the score 17-16. Then with less than a minute to play the high school intercepted a pass and Harris took a long shot which missed. Scholow grabbed the rebound and passed out to Harris who sank his second attempt with 20 seconds remaining. A few seconds later the high school fouled but the Alumni elected to take the ball out of bounds. They got one shot and the school boys took the rebound and froze the ball until the gun ended the game.

Show Real Palatine Spirit

The game was won at the bank-boards where the high school boys really put up a typical Palatine fight for the ball. Everyone played well and neither team hit the basket for a percentage to brag about. Birks did a fine job of bringing the ball up the court against the rushing Alumni and did good defensive work. Scholow's rebounding and general floor play stood out. Howes put up a real battle around the bank boards. J. Hayes was a ball hawk on defense and Harris came in with the pinch with the winning basket. Penkava and Warden gave creditable performances when in the game at guard and forward positions respectively.

The same spirit and fight combined with as cool playing as was demonstrated against the Alumni will make the Pirates a real title threat. Friday they meet on the home court one of their three toughest opponents of the season in a high scoring experienced Ela team.

Lights Look Good in Prelim

The preliminary last Wednesday found the regular lightweights beating the reserves 31-5. The starting lineup of M. Vogt, Kunze, C. Herr, Oltendorf, and Douglas displayed some very nice ball handling and shooting. M. Vogt

Ela veterans pace team to 28-17 victory over Barrington

Ela's strong varsity five ran up 11 points before Barrington could score and went on to whip the Bronchos 28-17 in a pre-season game on the Barrington court last Friday. Kropp and Knigge, hot shooting regulars from last year's team, paced the Bears early attack which carried them to a 15-3 lead at the quarter and a 22-10 half time advantage. The second half was a rough, poorly played 16 minutes of basketball on both sides. Barrington ran up a comfortable lead on Ela's lights but could barely hold it at the finish with the final score 18-16 for the junior bronchos. For the most part both games were unusually rough and officiated in a very lax manner.

Warren tops Grant in opener, 32-20

Warren started in basketball where they left off in football by downing Grant in their non-conference cage opener. Coach Kelton used 12 boys in beating the varsity 32-20 and scoring was evenly divided among Zelenko, Hall, Wirth, Thompson, and Murrie. The Gerretson brothers did most of Grant's scoring. The Warren junior varsity also won 17-12.

Pirates outscore Crystal Lake

Palatine outscored Crystal Lake Tuesday afternoon 39-36 in a practice game on the Pirates' court. The Lakers were very good on set shots and fast break playing but Palatine kept them away from the basket with a slow deliberate style of play and a zone defense. Palatine's rebound work showed great improvement. Howes and Harris with 22 and 21 points respectively were very active on tip up shots and the all round play of the team was an improvement over previous

The Lakers are expected to be one of the top teams in the Northeast loop as Cowan, Smith, and Tipps were regulars from last year's team. Palatine played Tuesday without Scholow, considered one of their best all round performers.

Warren continues in basketball win over Hebron, 17-16

Warren is still undefeated in sports this year. They won their second straight cage doubleheader last Friday night defeating Hebron 17-16 in the major tilt and taking the preliminary 28-21. Warren won all their football games.

After gaining a 14-10 half time lead Warren failed to score in the third period which ended 14 up. After getting ahead in the final period Warren stalled out the last four minutes of the game. Warren's edge was on free throws. Wirth, the football star, guarded Judson of Hebron and held him to three baskets while getting six points himself. Judson is the lone returning regular from the Hebron team which won 29 of 33 games last year.

Cardinals lose to Highland Park

Locals muzzled after gaining 1st half advantage

By JOE SMART

Arlington lost a double header at Highland Park last Saturday, the varsity outscored 36-26 and the jr. varsity falling by the count of 30-16.

In both games Arlington fouled relentlessly and Highland Park took advantage of these mistakes. The varsity had 18 fouls and the jr. varsity had 19 while their opponents received 13 in each contest.

Arlington's varsity, led by Becker's shooting and Jim Millhay's passing, held up well in the first half, but failed to pierce Highland Park's zone during the last period. In the first half Arlington got off a few fast breaks and a few passes under the basket to be leading 18-15, but were held safe the second half. Highland Park did an effective job of keeping the light and smaller Cardinals away from the backboard on rebounds. Arlington made only 8 points in the last half while their opponents were making 21.

Starring for Highland Park were Giarelli, Jones and Chamber, while Becker, Millay, Coleman and Bolte looked the best in defeat. The shooting was not very good as both teams took over fifty shots and Arlington connected for 20 per cent while Highland Park was getting 19 per cent. It was the varsity's second defeat in two non-conference games.

It was Arlington Jr. varsity's first defeat. The Green Tornadoes had the lead at the end of the first quarter, but relinquished it at the half, never to lead again. At the half they were losing 11-9 but Highland Park started hitting baskets to draw out. The green tornadoes got but one point in the fourth quarter while their opponents were getting nine.

Fell, Highland Park's center, played a good defensive game getting 13 points while Baldwin, captain and guard was getting five out of fourteen free throws. Leuhring and Smart of Arlington both had five points to lead the local's scoring.

Highland Park scored 10 out of 25 shots for 40 per cent and Arlington made 5 out of 30 for 17 per cent. Repeatedly during the varsity game, shots were blocked by the overhanging track which prevented shooting from the corners and allowed Highland Park's zone defense to concentrate on the area immediately in front of the basket.

Lake Forest splits pair with Zion

Lake Forest split their opening games of the season at Zion Friday, losing the varsity game 23-20 and winning the junior varsity contest 14-11. Neither team had more than a three point margin in the varsity game after the first period. Zion led 13-12 at the half. Sorenson with 11 points set the pace for the losing Scouts while Turner sank four baskets for the winners.
